The National Police Foundation was established under the Charitable Endowment Act 1890 vide SRO No.334 (1) 1975. The main objective of the Foundation is welfare of serving / retired police officers and their dependents. The National Police Foundation works on the principle and concept of doing welfare for the police beneficiaries all over Pakistan. Its working and operational scope provides umbrella to all fund generating commercial, industrial and housing activities duly approved by the Board of Directors and Committee of Administration. Previously, National Police Foundation has successfully launched two Housing Schemes i.e. NPF E-11 Housing Scheme and NPF O-9 Housing Scheme in Islamabad and Rawalpindi.

The National Police Foundation intends to launch a new Housing Project/ Scheme for its beneficiaries and opening its memberships for police officers / officials. The income generated from these housing / commercial projects shall be utilized for the welfare of police personnel, widows and police shuhada's families.

Your kindness is requested to disseminate this letter to all ranks and files of Provincial cadre police from Constable to SP in order to become the members of NPF and avail the opportunity to benefit from these schemes by getting plots and apartments.
