FOREWORD

Article 32 of the Police Order 2002 provides that head of District Police shall prepare Annual Policing Plan, which shall include objectives of the policing, financial resources, likely to be available during the year, targets to be achieved and mechanism for achieving these targets. It has further been provided in the said article that the plan would be got approved from the District Public Safety Commission but presently the District Public Safety Commission is not operating in this District.

So far as, contents of the policing plan are concerned, it has been prepared, keeping in view the aforementioned provisions of the Police Order 2002, directions of the high ups and pattern of crime and social behavior in the District. In fact, lack of industries has resulted the economic conditions in a terrible mess. Low price of agriculture products coupled by high cost of pesticides, fertilizers, utility charges, poor job opportunities, dearness and above all lack of education have aggravated crime situation. Geographical location also determines climate, character, traits and life pattern of the inhabitants of that particular area. District Okara is adjacent to District Pakpattan & Bahawalnagar across the river Satluj, towards South and criminal area of district Kasur towards East, Area of district Nankana Sahib & Faislabad towards north alongwith river Ravi and district Sahiwal towards west, which is hideout of various gangs of crime against property and cattle theft.

Utmost efforts have been made to have maximum utilization of the available resources in maintaining law and order situation, prevention/detection of crime and to curb sectarianism, terrorism and extremism. It has also been kept in mind while formulating policies for the year that the District Police Okara also has to play its role positively, in administration of criminal justice.

INTRODUCTION OF DISTRICT OKARA:

District Okara came into being on 01.07.1982 on detachment from Division of District Sahiwal, formerly known as Montgomery. It included the areas of Okara and Depalpur, which were previously two Tehsils of District Sahiwal.

Okara is a relatively new agricultural city; during the period of British rule there was forest of Okaan, where the city has been re-built, and from this, the name of the city was derived. During British rule, the area was part of Montgomery District and contained a large saltpeter (Potassium Nitrate) refinery. A large number of textile mills are located in Okara. After the independence of Pakistan in 1947, the Muslim refugees settled in Okara District in 1982, the city became the headquarter of the newly created Okara District. Okara has a railway line since 1892. Okara is famous for its cattle breed known as Sahiwal and a Water buffalo breed known as Niliravi. It is very rich in livestock population and production. Livestock Production Research Institute Bahadar Nagar Farm is a very large government farm near Okara. The farm has a large number of cows, buffalo, bulls (for reproduction), goats and sheep.

Notable People from Okara: Rai Ahmad Khan Kharral (Freedom fighter) Aftab Iqbal Anchor, Saeen Zahoor, Zulfiqar Babar Cricketer, Kokab Noraani Okaravi, Junaid Saleem Anchor are notable people of this district. Gogera, Satghara, Depalpur, Haveli, Sher Garh, and Hujra Shah Muqeem are historical places of this district.

Gogera has been district headquarter before 1864. However, it was shifted to Sahiwal and was named as Montgomery after the name of Sir Robert Montgomery, the late Governor of Punjab. Rai Ahmad Khan Kharal also called Amo Kharal (1785-1857) was a Punjabi freedom-fighter and Folk hero, who fought against the British Raj in the War of Independence of 1857 (also called the 'Indian Rebellion of 1857.

Renala Khurd Hydro Power Plant is situated on Canal Lower Bari Doab at Renala Khurd, Punjab, Pakistan. Sir Ganga Ram (1851–1927), a civil engineer and leading philanthropist of his time, established Renala Hydral Power Station in 1925, Pakistan's (Indian subcontinent's) first hydropower station.

Satghara: The name of this town "Satghara" is commonly believed to derive its name from words (Saat or Seven) (Ghara or pitchers) or seven ghars seven home. Another sound historical folklore is narrated that some injured solders of Alexander the Great (belonging to ancient town of Stageira of Macedonia) resided there and they named this ancient town as Stageira now corrupted as Satghara. It is also the location of the tomb of Baloch folk hero, Mir Chakar Rind. Many of his descendants as well as sub tribes of Baloch descent predominate in the district.

The city of Okara is renowned in producing of Potato, Okara is known as Pakistan's largest city for production of this commodity. Okara district is famous for its fertile land, peaceful natural environment and green fields of Potato, tomato, sugarcane, wheat, rice and maize crops. Mitchell's Fruit Farms commonly known as Mitchell's is a Pakistani food Products Company established by Francis J Mitchell in 1933 is also situated in Okara District.

TOPOGRAPHY:-

HISOTRY:

The history of this area is chiefly that of certain wild pastoral tribes which appear to have occupied this land from the time immemorial, maintaining independence from the successive rulers of northern India, and even noted for their lawless turbulence and criminal bent. Their history goes back, probably as far as the time of Alexander.

In 1524, Mughal Emperor Babar, having conquered Lahore marched on Depalpur and took it by storm. The area attached to Depalpur was then made over to Sultan Alla-ud-Din Lodhi who had been an unsuccessful competitor for the throne of Delhi.

During and after the British rule when the main irrigation system was established, new settlements on large scale took place. The settlers included Rajputs (Rao's), Wattoo, Jatts, Kharral and Arain. These communities are now playing an important social and political role in the society in addition to the Syed of Shergarh and Hujra, who contributed towards the propagation of Islam in the area.

Because of fertile land with well-connected irrigation system, people are mostly agriculturist. Sutluj Cotton Mills, one of the oldest Mills of the country is situated at Okara. Other industries like Baba Farid Sugar Mills, has also been set up at Okara.

Okara District has also its historical background. Gogera, a town of Okara district had been District Headquarter before 1864. However, it was shifted to Sahiwal and was named as Montgomery after the name of Sir Robert Montgomery, the late Governor of the Punjab. On the demand of the people, the old name was restored in year 1968 and Okara was one of its Sub-Divisionals in those days. Similar is the position of Depalpur Town which was once a fortified city in the Muhgal period. The people mostly belong to the clans of Wattoo, Hans, Kharals and Joyas. However, after independence different tribes like Rajput, Dogars, and Arain also migrated from India and settled in this district.

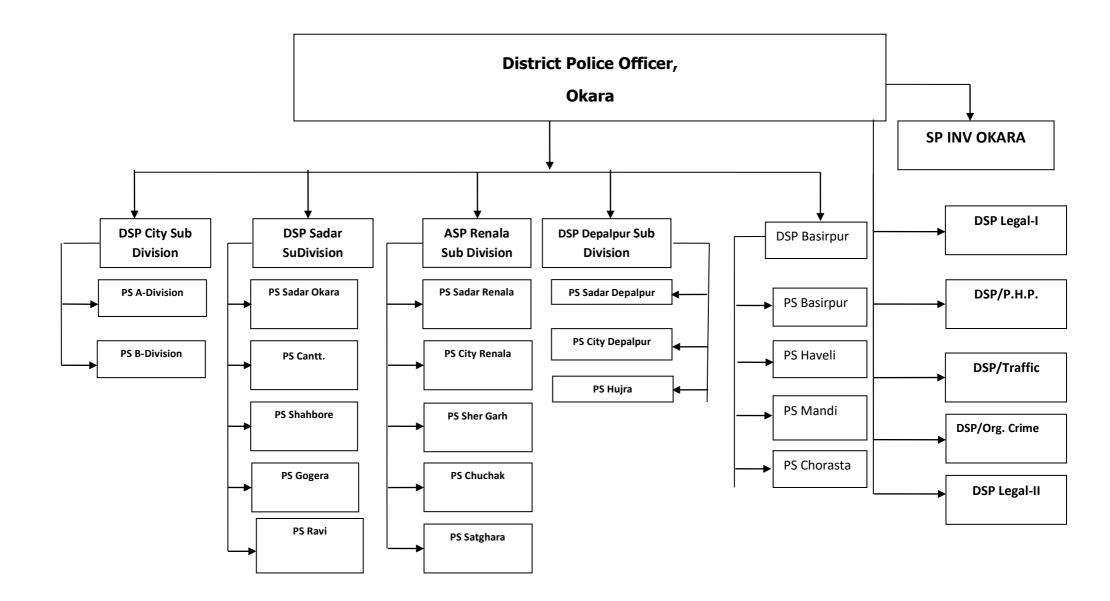

The people are primitive with their own customs and traditions. Cattle lifting are the staple crime in the Reverine areas of Ravi and Sutluj while in urban areas, burglary is predominant. Murder, abduction is also not uncommon. Family feuds/lands disputes sometimes lead to vicious circle of murders and countermurders.

There are 19 police stations in the district, with 4 Police Sub-Divisions City Circle, Saddar, Depalpur and Renal Khurd, each headed by a police officer of the rank of DSP. Like all other newly set up Districts, Okara District is also facing problems in the adequacy of staff, housing, arms and ammunition and transport etc.

CRIME SITUATION:

Socio-economic conditions, coupled with increase in population, unemployment and uncontrolled price hike have great impact on the crime situation. The criminals of young age are equipped with modern weapons which are used without any hesitation. The peace-loving citizens hesitate to face the criminals openly, obviously due to danger to their life honour and property.

During the year under review, at every occasion shortage of manpower and transport were main handicaps. Day by day, increasing workload and continuous working hours with adverse circumstances create difficult atmosphere for the district police. It is really a matter of pride that despite the above mentioned handicaps, the District Police Okara succeeded to get commendable results. Not only the crime was kept strictly under control but also complete law and order was maintained throughout the year.

ADMINISTRATIVE STEPS:

1. IMPROVEMENT OF POLICE IMAGE, THANA CULTURE, COMMUNITY POLICING, REDRESSAL OF PUBLIC COMPLAINTS, MONITORING AND VIGILANCE.

i. IMPROVEMENT OF POLICE IMAGE:

Police of Pakistan are undergoing a major credibility crisis. Police should change its behaviour and attitude towards the public in order to improve its image. The world is moving towards the concept of Community Policing at a rapid pace; which is a policing strategy and philosophy based on the notion that community interaction and support can help control crime and reduce fear, with community members helping to identify suspects, detain vandals and bring problems to the attention of public. But unless police extends cooperation coupled with courtesy towards the public this targets cannot be achieved.

- Open courts are being held regularly at DPO and SDPO level to attend public complaint and redress their grievances.
- Rescue 15 and police help centers are functional round the clock.
- Close liaison with print and electronic media to project the achievements of police.
- Prompt/free registration of cases.

Comments by DPO

By the grace of Almighty "Allah" District Police Okara is performing its duties according to law and is able enough to control law & order situation alongwith prevention and detection of crime, despite limited financial, technological and human resources. It is also added in this regard that the perfunctory exercise of drawing out plans, chalking out strategies and making vision in various areas, have been continued since establishment of the country but unfortunately, we often failed to achieve our targets and commitments, in real sense of the word.

Therefore, vital in this regard is to put all the plans and strategies in practice to have positive development in our society. In-Sha-Allah, the District Police Okara is ready to face any difficulty in discharge of its duties and it has now, come with more devotion/dedication and determination to drain its energies, to achieve the objectives/targets laid down in the policing plan. At the same time, it is also realized that the district police cannot take even a single step without cooperation of the Provincial Governments and the departmental high ups. It is hoped that all these will certainly stand with us, in fulfillment of our tasks. The district police will, at the same time play its pivotal role in effective administration of criminal justice and improving image of Police Department, please.

District Police Officer Okara
