Subject: Educational Opportunities for Children of Shuhada, Ghazis, and Police Personnel

Dear Sir, السلام عليكم

I am pleased to share that the National Police Foundation (NPF) has entered into a strategic Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with ULEARN (Private) Limited, Pakistan's pioneering online school and college affiliated with the Federal Board of Intermediate and Secondary Education. ULEARN is recognized for its innovative, high-quality, and affordable online education platform serving learners across the globe.

ULEARN provides comprehensive online academic programs for Secondary and Higher Secondary levels, fully aligned with the Federal Board curriculum. Its state-of-the-art Learning Management System (LMS) delivers a blend of live and recorded lectures, continuous assessments, and personalized academic support, guided by an expert faculty comprising seasoned educators, board examiners, and subject specialists.

As part of this collaboration, the following exclusive benefits have been extended to the police community:

- 100% fee waiver for children of Shuhada
- 50% concession for children of Ghazis (wounded/injured personnel)
- 25% concession for children of serving police personnel
- Access to modern skill development courses, including digital literacy, communication, and exam preparation modules
- A revenue-sharing model that will contribute to NPF's welfare initiatives through referral-based enrollments

This initiative is designed to bring quality education and future-ready skills within reach of police families, especially those in remote or underserved regions, where access to structured academic support remains limited.

We are confident that this partnership will play a significant role in uplifting and empowering the families of our brave police personnel. Your continued support in disseminating this opportunity among your respective formations will be highly appreciated.

You are kindly requested to designate AIG (Welfare) as the focal person to coordinate this initiative with NPF and facilitate its implementation.

With highest regards and profound respect,

Dr. Usman Anwar
Inspector General of Police, Punjab Police,
Central Police Office, Lahore.
