

ANNUAL POLICING PLAN

For the Calendar year 2022-2023
(Chapter-IV, Article-32 of Police Order-2002)

DISTRICT MULTAN

City Police Officer
Multan

INTRODUCTION

Article 32(4) of the Police Order 2002 envisages formulation of Annual District Policing Plan. The plan shall include objectives of policing, financial resources likely to be available during the year, target and mechanism for achieving those goals. As a statutory requirement, “Annual Policing Plan 2022-23” is supposed to be submitted to the competent authority for its approval. Although, objectives are derived from the overarching vision for the District Police but the financial resources, earmarked by the government for Multan in the financial year and constraints thereof have changed initiatives in transforming District Police into an efficient and transparent public service provider entity will be more dependent on the behavioral transformation through short courses at Police lines, redesigning human resource management practice and developing standard operating procedures for police processes and professionalism. However, it is necessary that reformed police in accordance with the wishes of the citizens of the district is essential, a cost intensive effort, where huge public money is involved. Sir Robert Peel in his address to the British parliament on Police Reforms in 1907 expressed his views that, “The quality of policing is directly proportional to the financial aspects of policing. It will be difficult to get good results without paying for it”. Despite this financial stringency, Multan Police is fully cognizant and committed to its pivotal and crucial role in warding off today’s biggest menace namely terrorism in addition to performing other basic functions and duties as enumerated in the plan. The first and foremost objective of the District Police is to maintain law and order and to provide safe and sound environment to the general public so that each segment of the society may contribute positively towards economic growth. To provide complete security of life and property to the law-abiding citizens is priority to the District Police. To achieve this objective, the District Police has chalked out a well thought out plan which includes monitoring of persons / groups that have potential to create law and order problems with special focus on trade / labour union, lawyers, students and transporters etc. Terrorism has been at the top of agenda for Pakistani society for the last few decades. To uproot terrorism/extremism complete implementation of National Action Plan is priority of the District Police. The Anti Terrorism strategy, as envisaged in the Annual Policing Plan includes monitoring of “Deeni Madarasas” involved in fanning sectarian hatred, surveillance of persons brought on 4th schedule, strict enforcement of law regarding misuse of loudspeaker, “chanda” collection, publishing and distribution of hate material, security of sensitive institutions and information of rented buildings. Special attention has been given for the protection of “Imambargahs”, “Majalis”, Mosques, Processions, religious gatherings, important personalities and places of worship of minorities in annual plan.

The Annual Policing Plan also caters for a measure to be taken for reducing crime against property with special emphasis to robberies, vehicle theft and street crime. Eradication of social evils like illicit arms, narcotics peddling, gambling and prostitution is on the priority agenda. Bringing the hardened criminals to the book of law will remain the top most priority of the District Police.

Effective utilization of human resources, eradication of corruption from Police department, elimination of torture, illegal confinement and abusive language is also on the agenda in the Annual Plan. Bringing qualitative and quantitative changes in the Police culture by imparting necessary training coupled with effective system of monitoring will definitely improve the Police image in public eyes. May Allah give us courage to serve the nation.

History:

The city of Multan is as old as Harrapa and Moinjo Daru. Its history traces back to 2500 BC. However, the origin of the name of the city is difficult to ascertain. Hiven Taang the renowned Chinese Tourist, who visited the city in 741, AD called it Mu-Lo-San-Po-Lu. Some historians maintain that name of the district evolved from Moolistan or Mooltan to Multan. During recent years Multan has attracted huge population influx from neighboring districts that have settled in the city to avail urban environment and facilities. Resultantly large, irregular suburbs have grown outside the old walled town. Hence Multan has become one of five major urban centers of Punjab. Multan is City of Saints because there are shrines of Muslim saints such as those of Hazrat Bahawal Haque, Shah-Rukan-e-Alam, Shah Shams Tabraiz and Musa-Pak Shaheed. Multan is also a big commercial and industrial Hub with colorful bazars and home-based small industries. Including soap, and glass factories; cotton, woolen mills; textile mills; flour, sugar and oil mills which bring foreign exchange to country by its export. It is famous for its handicrafts (ceramics and camel-skin work), cottage industries and Sohan Halwa. Mangoes of Multan district are the best in the world. Multani khusas (shoes); embroidery work earthenware pottery, painted potter, camel-skin lamps, carpets wooden products, especial lacquered wood are other specialties of Multan. District Multan borders with Muzaffargarh, Lodhran, Khanewal and Vehari districts¹. Earlier all these districts except Muzaffargarh were part of district Multan. District Multan presently consists of 4 Tehsils - City Multan, Saddar Multan, Shujabad and Jalalpur Pirwala. The total area of district Multan is 3720 Square Kilometers. The District Headquarter, Multan city, is located at a distance of 355 kilometers from the provincial capital Lahore. It is situated just east of the Chenab River, about 966 km from Karachi and more or less at the same distance from Peshawar.

Rivers:

There is only one River Chenab in the district. It flows along the southern and western boundary of the district.
